Reteaching Activity

Good Character Traits

Your character is how you think, feel, and act. People with good character treat themselves and others in a positive way.

Directions: Write down the six main traits of good character. Then think of an example of how someone demonstrates each of these character traits in real life. Review the information presented in the course for ideas.

1. Trait 1: ___________________________
2. Trait 2: ___________________________
3. Trait 3: ___________________________
4. Trait 4: ___________________________
5. Trait 5: ___________________________
6. Trait 6: ___________________________

Give an example of how someone demonstrates each trait in real life.

7. Trait 1: ___________________________
8. Trait 2: ___________________________
9. Trait 3: ___________________________
10. Trait 4: ___________________________
11. Trait 5: ___________________________
12. Trait 6: ___________________________
Activity 7

Your Character Counts

Using the traits of good character in the box below, decide which trait is being described and write it on the line next to each item.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Trustworthiness</th>
<th>Fairness</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Respect</td>
<td>Caring</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Responsibility</td>
<td>Citizenship</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Taylor’s teacher asks her to complete an assignment at her desk instead of going to the science fair. Taylor completes the assignment as she is told.

2. Christopher promised his mother he would clean his room before dinner. When his friends asked him to go swimming, Christopher told them he would join them as soon as he had finished cleaning.

3. When Brittany hit a softball during a backyard game, she broke her neighbor’s window. Immediately, she knocked on their door and told them what happened.

4. Although Ryan was disappointed that his lacrosse team lost the tournament, he congratulated everyone on the winning team before he left the field.

5. Jessica and her friends began a neighborhood cleanup campaign to pick up trash at the park.

6. Tyler noticed that the new boy in his class seemed quiet. Tyler wondered if he missed his old friends. Tyler made a point to sit with him at lunch and talk to him about his old school.