Book Review Evaluation

Exceeds Standard (4)- You’ve met the expectations for a book review with an interesting, well-written essay. The reader is "hooked" by the introduction. You have summarized the story in a way that makes the reader really understand what you read about. You’ve fully supported your opinion of the book with evidence from the book. Your conclusion wraps up your book review in a good spot and you leave the reader with something to think about.

Meets Standard (3)- You have met all the expectations of a book review. You have an introduction that includes the author, illustrator, and genre of the book you read. You have briefly described what the book is about without retelling too many details of the plot. Your opinion of the book is clear and you've supported it with some evidence from the book. You have an ending that sums up what your book review is about.

Approaches Standard (2)- You have some of the required book review elements, but not all of them. The summary is incomplete or you've included too many details of the plot. You may have an opinion about the book, but you have not supported it with clear evidence from the book. Your conclusion might be confusing.

Below Standard (1)- Your book review does not meet expectations. The introduction is missing or incomplete. The summary is confusing and the reader has difficulty understanding what this book is about. Your opinion of the book is unclear or missing. You have not supported your opinion with evidence from the book. The conclusion statement is missing or incomplete.

Bibliography - ___ Follows correct format ___ Does not follow correct format or is missing

Exceeds Standard (4)- You’ve met the expectations for a book review with an interesting, well-written essay. The reader is "hooked" by the introduction. You have summarized the story in a way that makes the reader really understand what you read about. You’ve fully supported your opinion of the book with evidence from the book. Your conclusion wraps up your book review in a good spot and you leave the reader with something to think about.

Meets Standard (3)- You have met all the expectations of a book review. You have an introduction that includes the author, illustrator, and genre of the book you read. You have briefly described what the book is about without retelling too many details of the plot. Your opinion of the book is clear and you've supported it with some evidence from the book. You have an ending that sums up what your book review is about.

Approaches Standard (2)- You have some of the required book review elements, but not all of them. The summary is incomplete or you've included too many details of the plot. You may have an opinion about the book, but you have not supported it with clear evidence from the book. Your conclusion might be confusing.

Below Standard (1)- Your book review does not meet expectations. The introduction is missing or incomplete. The summary is confusing and the reader has difficulty understanding what this book is about. Your opinion of the book is unclear or missing. You have not supported your opinion with evidence from the book. The conclusion statement is missing or incomplete.

Bibliography - ___ Follows correct format ___ Does not follow correct format or is missing